"I used to hate all Hipster (contemporary people wearing glasses without glass, hot hair, etc.), which were fashionably dressed and the homeless, but I've learned that every human being can only happiness that is possible for him to find and make me happy." "I miss them"

"Live your life to the fullest! Sing, laugh, dream, love, feel, regardless of the opinions of others. It's your life, not the other.
Bisexuality exists. "

I am afraid that life is running out and I have not experienced life. I want to live!

I feel anger at your death. It was not yet the right time. I need your existence. My tears have been an ocean. I need you.

Stop and think for a moment and ask yourself if you are living in your own way.

Undaunted, to explore, full of desire to live life, all feeling in the world, not resident. A life without fear is what I want.

I want life step by step life. I want to enjoy what I have, and fight for what I need.

I'm gay

I want to get near a person I've never spoken but that has been an important part of my life compared to other people I do know and speak.

How beautiful is the love and be loved. But how ugly is the experience of love and not being together. I thank God that he has given me peace, happiness, a beautiful family, and friends who love me. Thank God that I exist in this life with my strengths and weaknesses. MARA

Please be happy!

Live life without worrying about what others are doing.

As much as you have to live life worry, the end always comes.

Many of these messages are inspirational, others realistic. Love, be active, not sentenced and has lived fully. God bless you!

My nightmares kidnap me, hurt me, rip my head and heart apart. I want a friend who is called David.

I want to have everything easier to find a job and have more time for my studies.

What you think, it is, it is not real just because of you believe it.

Life is a film in which characters are all, but scenes can not be repeated. Life with love and peace makes us smarter. You must no doubt have with the person you love, because you can lose this person. Love is the greatest power that I have. It solves everything.

Today, when I look at various works of art, I discover how small I am and realize to establish the size beauty. I believe in heaven and hell in my everyday life. I think to choose in war and in peace and goodness.

Failure, fear and terror. Everything is overcome by love and longing.

the past returns. The necessary evil, to the meaning of good and meaning of life at all.

Art is a way to express imagination and a way of life

Here I was. I did what I wanted and how I wanted, as I thought it.

Dear whoever you are:

I want to find this special someone, I don't want to be hurt I want to be happy blue-blue singing a melody of love and not crying until the end, making a far away promise, I want respect, love, happiness and a world with peace, everyone getting along without prejudices everyone healthy, happy and making their lives not being manipulated by anyone. Is it too much what I ask for? I don't know anymore, people is mean, they produce harm, thieves ,loneliness, deaths, prejudices, hate....So many bad things, it makes me sad, but, there's still time, there are persons out there kind, happy, sweet, they can change the world. Small discovers are big beginnings, in space. No one can hear you scream, but I believe that in earth at least someone will. We are not alone, don't produce harm to yourself or other one, be good, we all can do that, we are all beautiful and equal, we must have the same rights, no one is better or worse, we have our specialties, if someone tells you otherwise they're wrong, this world needs love, let's at least try to make it better, try to be happy, if you're happy , I know you'll be ok, when you feel sad, lonely, homesick or any other negative emotion, just take a melody, simple as can be add it some words and sweet harmony raise your voices all day. From now love grows strong, now sing a melody of love, oh love,it you feel that you need someone, remember your friends your family, because when you are happy with laughter to spare, fun is twice as fun with someone to share,, when you are lonely and full of despair things aren't as half bad, when somebody cares may be you have figured out but that's what a friend is about, remember those who are kind to your Dad, your friends your friends, your mother, perhaps . Forget those that give you harm even if it hurts to do, even if you love them, because that'll just make you sad. I may be 13 old but lets be good, let's be happy forever until we can`t live more, let's get all together to make a better world! No more bullying just peace and love. I don't want more suffer in this world. Everything I had do, even this was with my hands, my body, my mind, now I ask you what can you do with them?

Everything if you believe you can what you will.....this is so long, I hope at least someone may get the message.

It Is , the end, Fin(yes in Mexican) (yes I know English and Japanese!)(yes, I want a better world's land; yes, I want people to be happy)

"Früher habe ich alle Hipster (moderne Leute mit Brille ohne glas, geile Haar usw.), die modisch gekleidet waren und die Obdachlosen gehasst, aber ich habe gelernt, dass jeder Mensch kann nur das Glück was für ihn möglich ist, finden und das macht mich glücklich." "Ich vermisse sie"

2Vive tu vida:

"Lebe dein Leben in vollen Zügen! Singe, lache, träume, liebe, fühle, unabhängig von den Meinungen anderer. Es ist dein Leben, nicht das der anderen.
Bisexualität existiert."

Ich habe Angst, dass das Leben verrinnt und ich habe das Leben nicht erlebt. Ich will leben!

Ich spüre Wut über deinen Tod. Es war noch nicht der richtige Zeitpunkt. Ich brauche dein Dasein. Meine Tränen sind ein Meer. Ich brauche dich.

Stoppen Sie und denken für einen Moment und fragen Sie sich, ob Sie in Ihren eigenen Weg leben.

Unerschrocken zu erkunden, voller Sehnsucht das Leben zu leben, alle Gefühl der Welt, ohne Wohnsitz. Ein Leben ohne Angst ist, was ich will.

Ich will das Leben Schritt für Schritt leben. Ich möchte genießen, was ich habe, und kämpfen für das, was ich brauche.

I want life step by step life. I want to enjoy what I have and fight for what I need.

ich bin Homosexuell.

I'm gay

I want to get near a person I've never spoken but that has been an important part of my life compared to other people I do know and speak.

Wie schön ist die Liebe und geliebt werden. Aber wie hässlich ist die Erfahrung von Liebe und nicht Zusammensein.

Ich danke Gott, dass er mir Frieden, Glück, eine schöne Familie, Freunde, die mich lieben gegeben hat. Gott sei Dank, dass ich in diesem Leben mit meinen Stärken und Schwächen existiere. MARA Bitte, sei glücklich!

Lebe das Leben, ohne sich Gedanken darüber zu machen, was andere tun.

So viel wie Sie über das Leben zu leben Sorge haben, das Ende kommt immer.

Viele dieser Meldungen sind inspirierend, andere realistisch. Liebt, seid aktiv, verurteilt nicht und lebt voll.
Gott segne dich!

Meine Albträume entführen mich, verletzen mich, reißen meinen Kopf und Herz auseinander. Ich möchte einen Freund, der David heißt.

Ich möchte alles leichter haben, einen Job finden und mehr Zeit für mein Studium haben.

What you think, it is, it is not real just because of you believe it.

Leben ist ein Film, in dem Charaktere sind alle, aber Szenen können nicht wiederholt werden. Leben mit Liebe und Frieden macht uns schlauer. Sie müssen kein Zweifel haben mit die Person die Sie lieben, weil Sie können diese Person verlieren.

Liebe ist die größte Macht, die ich habe. Es löst alles.

Heute, wenn ich verschiedene Kunstwerke ansehe, entdecke ich, wie klein ich bin und erkennen die Größe Schönheit zu schaffen. Ich glaube an Himmel und Hölle in meinem Alltag. Ich glaube, im Krieg und im Frieden und das Gute zu wählen.

Versagen, Angst und Schrecken. Alles wird von Liebe und Sehnsucht überwunden.

die Vergangenheit kehrt zurück. Die notwendiges Übel, um den Sinn der guten und Sinn des Lebens überhaupt.

Kunst ist ein Weg, um Phantasie auszudrücken und einen Weg des Lebens

Hier war ich. Ich tat, was ich wollte und wie ich wollte, wie ich es gedacht habe.
